Dear Parents/Carers,

Visitor to Seahorse Class

As part of this term's learning about the the changes through time will be looking at nurses through time and have Janet Marshall visiting us to provide the children with an immersive experience. The visit will take place on Monday 18th November. Janet will be coming into school to provide the experience which will happen in class. This will be hands on with focuses on different nurses from Florence Nightingale through to Edith Cavell. Doves Class from Swanton Abbott will be joining us for the morning and lunchtime.

The cost of the visit is £5 per child unless you are in receipt of Pupil Premium support then it will be £2.50 per child. A message from school money will be sent to you informing you that this payment is available. Please make your payment and confirm consent via the School Money system for this visit.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.
Yours sincerely

Megan Lucas
Seahorse Class Teacher
